Bishop Noll Institute has announced plans to renovate its former natatorium into a state-of-the-art STREAM Lab and Innovation Center with a goal of opening for classes in Fall 2019. The $1 million-plus project, to be funded primarily by the school's Ignite & Inspire capital campaign, was given the go-ahead Aug 27th. STREAM is Noll's version of STEM, which stands for science, technology, engineering and math. Lorenza Pastrick said expanding the curriculum at Bishop Noll to incorporate religion (R) and the arts (A) fully integrates two of the school's curricular hallmarks.
